I. A. Tokley, Tina Ravn : Company and Securities Law in China (China Law Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Company and Securities Law in China (China Law Series):

As foreign investment in the PRC increases, companies will need to understand the corporate environment in which they do business. This addition to the China Law Series offers a practical guide to the formation and regulation of companies, illustrating their role in the Chinese economic system. Key issues are addressed and underpinned by informed critical commentary. The book gives explanations of the operations of the Shanghai and Shenzen Stock Exchanges, and provides translations of relevant legislation. * Illustrates in clear detail the role of companies within the Chinese economic system * Provides translations of all relevant legislation * An invaluable work for those advising investors in China
