Kojo Sebastien Amanor : Land, Labour and the Family in Southern Ghana: A Critique of Land Policy under Neo-Liberalisation, Research Report 116 (NAI Research Reports) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Land, Labour and the Family in Southern Ghana: A Critique of Land

This report is based on field work carried out in the Akyem Abuakwa area of the forest region of Ghana, a section of the country rich in agricultural land, gold, and diamonds. Through the field work which was undertaken and the empirical material generated, the author attempts to chart the processes and patterns of differentiation connected to land and land use in contemporary Ghana.
