

(Download free pdf) Law Governance - Beyond the Public-Private Law Divide? (Governance Recht)

Law Governance - Beyond the Public-Private Law Divide? (Governance Recht)

*From Eleven International Publishing
DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

eleven internacional publishing
Copyrighted Material

 Download

 Read Online

#9490829 in Books 2013-11-18Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 .80 x 6.40 x 9.301, .0 #File Name:
9462361037324 pages | File size: 43.Mb

From Eleven International Publishing : Law Governance - Beyond the Public-Private Law Divide? (Governance Recht) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Law Governance - Beyond the Public-Private Law Divide? (Governance Recht):

The Third Annual Conference of the Netherlands Institute for Law and Governance took place at Wageningen

University on November 29, 2011. The conference was themed "Law Governance - Beyond the Public-Private Law Divide?". A governance approach focuses on all institutions that pursue policy goals. During the conference, the main question discussed was what this approach means for legal research and legal practice. Is the distinction between public and private law still relevant? Can the governance approach enrich methodologies of legal research? Can this approach further new types of regulation, in which the market or civil society organizations have an important input and/or which require more technical expertise? This book examines both legal practice and legal research in order to learn from the examples of problems and approaches that fit the focus of governance. (Series: Governance Law - Vol. 9)

About the Author Aurelia L.B. Colombi Ciacchi is professor of Law and Governance and Academic Director of the Groningen Centre for Law and Governance, at the University of Groningen, Faculty of Law. Michiel A. Heldeweg is professor of Public Governance Law at the University of Twente, Department of Public Administration. Bernd M.J. van der Meulen is professor of Law and Governance at the Research University of Wageningen, Department of Social Sciences. Richard Neerhof is an associate professor of administrative law in the department of constitutional and administrative law of the VU University of Amsterdam.